

Summer programs planned

Although Gallaudet has graduated another class and many students have packed their bags and taken off for home, the campus will be anything but quiet this summer. A wide variety of classes, programs and other educational and recreational activities will be held on Kendall Green during the next few months, under the sponsorship or co-sponsorship of Gallaudet's College for Continuing Education.

In addition to a variety of classes for graduate students and professionals on campus, classes will also be offered at the Gallaudet New England Regional Extension Center (at Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, MA) and at the Gallaudet Mid-West Regional Extension Center (at Johnson County Community College, Overland Park, KS).

The Department of Sign Communication is offering a wide selection of sign language classes at all levels, as well as interpreter training and a sign language teacher training program.

Through the Department of Physical Education and Athletics, persons can participate in special programs on basic or advanced athletic training, methods of teaching dance to the deaf, effective coaching methods and soccer and tennis camps.

Here is a sampling of special programs to be offered on campus during the summer months:

- June 5-25: Clergy Training
This study and training course for clergy and religious educators will help prepare them for ministry to deaf individuals. It's offered by Continuing Education in conjunction with the Office of Campus Ministries.
- June 6-24: Training Programs in Continuing/Community Education
Offered for professionals involved with hearing impaired persons, the training will focus on planning, implementing, promoting and financing continuing and community education programs.
- June 12-18: Elderhostel Program
Two programs are being offered concurrently to adults 60 years or older, and their spouses. "Hearing Loss in Later Years" is designed for hearing seniors who have begun to lose their hearing. "A Week in the Arts" is planned for senior deaf adults and their spouses who are fluent in sign language.
- June 13-17: A.B.E. Workshop: "Working with Disadvantaged Deaf Adults"
The workshop for teachers and administrators will focus on Adult Basic Education, Independent Living Skills and G.E.D. level classes for deaf adults.

Faculty and staff members enjoy an informal picnic at a pool party held at MSSD May 27.

Alan and Florence Crammatte share a toast at a reception held in their honor May 25. Crammatte held the Powrie V. Doctor Chair of Deaf Studies this past year.

T.H.G. stamp to be issued Friday

President Merrill and others from the Gallaudet community will be in West Hartford, CT this Friday, June 10, to help celebrate the first day ceremony for the issuing of the new Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet postage stamp.

Merrill will give the welcoming address at the event, being held at the American School for the Deaf and sponsored by the American School, the Gallaudet College Alumni Association and Gallaudet College.

Jack Gannon, director of the Alumni and Public Relations Office and executive secretary of the GCAA, will be an honored guest at the event. The Gallaudet Dancers will also perform.

The 20-cent postage stamp which pictures Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, founder of the American School, is the first deafness related stamp to be issued. The United States Postal Service has commissioned the stamp as part of its Great Americans Series. The stamp recognizes Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, for whom Gallaudet College was named, as a pioneer in the education of deaf people. He was also the father of Edward Miner Gallaudet, first president of Gallaudet College.

Make suggestions for staff picnic

The 1983 Staff Appreciation Picnic is now being planned. The tentative date and time of the event is Friday, Aug. 5 from 2-5 p.m. Staff members will receive further information about the event at a later date.

The planning committee would like suggestions from staff on activities they would like to see planned or on skills they have to offer. Suggestions and requests, if possible, will be incorporated into the schedule of events and activities.

All suggestions for the picnic should be sent to Mickie Ballotta in House 8 by July 7.

Kendall celebrates anniversary Thurs.

Come to Kendall Demonstration Elementary School this Thursday, June 9 to help celebrate its 125th anniversary.

The event begins at 1 p.m. at the rear of the school behind the playground, and a reception under the pavilion will follow. If it rains, the event will be held in the Kendall gym.

The program includes a welcome by President Merrill, former Kendall administrators reminiscing about the school during the years, the unveiling of a special portrait of Amos Kendall by the wife of Senator Bob Packwood, the performance of "Roots and Wings" by Kendall students and faculty, and the releasing of helium-filled balloons containing messages.

Everyone on campus is invited to attend.

SSoF sponsors family weekends

Following in the tradition of its successful Family Learning Vacations, the Special School of the Future Project is promoting a new parent involvement concept—the family weekend. The program, like the Learning Vacation, is designed to be an enjoyable learning experience for parents and families of deaf children.

The weekend offers parents the opportunity to share experiences and information. A family weekend can be implemented by a school, a school's parents organization or several local parent groups.

Guidelines have been developed by the Special School of the Future Project for these groups to use in conducting a family weekend. They include advance planning strategies such as obtaining support from the school administration, creating a planning committee, conducting a survey of parent needs and interests, and setting the objectives for the weekend. There are also suggestions for working within the budget, setting up the schedule and designing all aspects of the program. Sample schedules are included.

Reports from schools which have conducted a family weekend have been positive. Several parents have suggested that these weekends be held twice a year as a regular part of the school program.

For persons interested in conducting a family weekend, copies of A Family Weekend are available through the Gallaudet College Press Distribution Office on campus.

Hayley Reed, daughter of TV Production Specialist Barbra Reed, checks out the equipment in her mother's office.

Health Service hours

The Student Health Service will have summer hours from June 23-Aug. 1. Hours will be Monday through Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

There will be no service during the evenings and on weekends. Should an emergency arise, contact the Department of Safety and Security, x5555.

A current Gallaudet ID card will be required prior to any service being rendered at the Student Health Service.

Summer programs

- June 13-24: Genetics and Deafness
The program for professionals working with hearing impaired persons will include an introduction to genetics and specific studies of disorders associated with deafness.
- June 13: Summer Session I: Graduate and Sign Communication
- June 20-24: Computer Applications in Audiology
This week-long workshop is for audiologists and other hearing health professionals to acquaint them with essentials of computer technology and computer applications in the area of hearing impairment.
- June 20-July 29: International Seminar on Audiometry
This six-week program, in cooperation with the Department of Audiology, will include lectures and clinical practice in diagnostic procedures, client and parent counseling, hearing aid fitting and rehabilitative procedures.
- June 25-26: Deaf Children in Foster Care
This special weekend program is for foster parents, child placement specialists, social service professionals and others who serve deaf children in the child welfare system.
- June 26-July 2: Family Cued Speech Program
Sponsored jointly by Continuing Education and the Office of Cued Speech Programs, this first session will be for adults only. Cued Speech will be taught as well as orientation on methods of using Cued Speech and its implications for language development, speech development, speechreading, reading and mainstreaming.
- June 27: Summer Session II: Graduate and Sign Communication
- July 1-7: Family Learning Vacations I and II
These are the first of six seven-day Learning Vacations jointly sponsored by the College for Continuing Education, Model Secondary School for the Deaf and Kendall Demonstration Elementary School. Skills will be taught to both parents and children in families with deaf children. The first Learning Vacation is specifically related to Ushers Syndrome; the second is for families with deaf children ages 13-18.
- July 9-15: Family Learning Vacations III, IV and V
Learning Vacation III will focus on beginning sign communication and IV will focus on advanced sign communication. Session V is for families with 2-6 year olds.
- July 11: Sign Communication Summer Session III
- July 17-23: Family Learning Vacations VI and VIII
Session VI is for families with 2-6 year olds and Session VII is for families with 7-12 year olds.
- July 18: Graduate Summer Session III
- July 25-Aug. 5: Training Workshop: Uses of Creative Drama in Deaf Education
The workshop will familiarize teachers with creative drama activities and their application to learning experiences for deaf children.
- July 31-Aug. 6: Family Cued Speech Program

Deaf-blind services

The U.S. Department of Education's Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services is inviting applications for new grants to support centers and services for deaf-blind children. Applications must be submitted by July 18, 1983.

Approximately $11.7 million is available for these awards for FY 1983. Applicants may propose project periods of up to 36 months. It is expected that continuation awards will decrease, however, by 35% for FY 1984 and an additional 25% for FY 1985.

Each center is required to provide diagnostic and evaluate services for deaf-blind children as well as programs of education, orientation and adjustment. In addition, they will offer consultative services to those persons directly involved in the lives of those children.

Centers are also required to develop and disseminate materials and information to assist professionals engaged in programs designed for deaf-blind children, and provide training to those involved in the delivery of services to deaf-blind children.

The Department of Education will award one grant each in six separate geographical regions that have been established for this program. A separate competition will be conducted in each region.

For further information contact the Office of Sponsored Research, or call R. Paul Thompson, Centers and Services for Deaf-Blind Children, Special Education Programs, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Ave. SW, Donohoe Bldg., Room 4918, Washington, D.C. 20202, 472-7993.

Staff can take Hebrew course

Several staff members have asked if they can sign up for the Hebrew course being offered this fall. The answer is yes.

The registrar has set aside Aug. 19 as the day on which staff can register for fall courses offered by the College. Persons can register for three hours credit or as an auditor for no credits.

The Hebrew course will be offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. It will be taught by Israel Sela, a native of Israel and the hearing son of deaf parents. With his experience in both worlds—hearing/deaf and Israel/America, Sela will provide cultural perspectives and comparisons in addition to teaching the language itself.

Board of Trustees meets

The Board of Trustees of Gallaudet College had a busy weekend from Saturday, May 21 through Monday, May 23. On Saturday night, the Board hosted a dinner in "Ole Jim" honoring President and Mrs. Edward C. Merrill, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Muth. Highlights of the dinner included a presentation of a plaque to the Muths and an announcement by Vincent Gray that May 23, 1983, had been declared Edward C. Merrill, Jr. Day in D.C. by Mayor Marion S. Barry. Chairman of the Board Jane Spilman and other members of the Board commended the Merrills and the Muths for their many years of service to Gallaudet College.

On Sunday, May 29 following committee meetings in the afternoon, the Board honored academically outstanding seniors and graduate students of the Class of '83. David S. Birnbaum, Class of '77, a program analyst with IBM, gave an address. The Board and the honor students also viewed a videotape of the recent Sleeping Bag Seminar held by the Honors Program.

On Monday morning, May 23, the Board attended Commencement activities as well as a luncheon with invited guests. At the regular Board meeting on Monday afternoon, a variety of important decisions were made.

Upon recommendation from the Committee on Resources, the Board approved the FY'85 budget submission for the Department of Education, the Treasurer's Report, Authority to Borrow Current Operating Funds on a Short-Term Basis, a revised investment policy, and made new decisions related to the College's investment advisors. Additionally, the Board approved monies for cosmetic and utility improvements in Peet Hall. Finally, the Board decided to table further development of the Gallaudet Educational Foundation until Dr. Johns can review the plans.

The Committee on Mission recommended approval of a change in the Faculty Bylaws reducing the percentage required for a quorum from 50 to 40%. Upon recommendation of this Committee, the Board also approved faculty promotions for Patricia Byrd, Nancy Kensicki, Truman Stelle, Barbara Stevens, Bruce White, Janice Mitchell, Raymond Kolander, Edward Krest, Gerald Daly, Rosalie Robinette, Catherine Ingold, Mark Weinberg, Catherine Moses, William Kemp, Jeffrey Grandel, Marita Danek, James Achtzehn, David Knight, Kenneth Epstein, Martin Minter and Kathleen Zaccagnini. The Board awarded tenure to Russell Astley, Amy Dickstein, Spencer Gibbins, Catherine Moses, Burnelle McIntyre Ray, Kathryn Baldridge, Carolyn Ewoldt, Mynga Futrell, Rudolph Gawlik, Judith Johnson, Thomas Kluwin, Robert Mobley, Martin Noretsky, Frank Zieziula, Patrick Cox and Carol Erting.

From the Pre-College area, tenure was granted to Angela Bednarczyk, Lynne Gelzer, Gail Larabee, Martha Manson, Janice Welborn, Richard White, Wanda Witczak-Berke, Judy Anderson-Berglund, Jo Ann Brown, Max Fitz-Gerald, Richard Pelletier, Susan Ruffin, James Vincent, Robert Westerman and Nathie Couthen. Also from Pre-College Programs, sabbatical leaves were approved for Alfred Bone, Linda Lytle, J. James Kearney, Jacqueline Maeder and William Stevens. The Board also approved Dr. Richard Shavelson of the Rand Corporation to membership on the KDES National Advisory Board and approved a student health policy for MSSD.

Upon recommendation of the Committee on Mission, the Board approved names for several buildings on the Northwest Campus. Buildings will be named for Irving S. Fufeld, who was appointed the first dean of Gallaudet College in 1916; Byron B. Burnes, who served as president of the NAD from 1946 to 1964; Frederick C. Schreiber, who served as the first full-time executive director of the NAD from 1966 until his death in 1979; and Laura Searing, a journalist, author and poet who was graduated from the Missouri School for the Deaf in the middle of the 19th century.

The Committee also reviewed a progress report on initial planning for meeting the recommendations of the 1983 Board of Fellows Report on Communication.

The Committee on Trustees recommended a number of resolutions. These were for Bradshaw Mintener, Alexander Patterson, Lillian Holt, Boyce Williams, Linda McCarty, Denise Sullivan, Herbert Woofier, Catherine Ingold and Michael Baer. Through a resolution, the Board commended Mintener for his many years of loyal service to Gallaudet College, and his recent resignation from the Board was accepted with regrets. The other people listed above were commended for their service on the Presidential Search Committee. The Committee on Trustees also recommended that authority to establish an Ad Hoc Committee on Long-Range Planning be granted to the Chairman of the Board; this was approved.

The next meeting of the Gallaudet College Board of Trustees will be on Oct. 20, 1983. At this time, following its regular meeting on this date, the Board will be in retreat studying Pre-College Programs.

T.H.G. commemorated in biography

Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, to be honored this week through a new U.S. postage stamp, is also being commemorated in a biography newly distributed by Gallaudet College Press.

Gallaudet: Friend of the Deaf, written especially for teenagers, portrays the struggles of Gallaudet as a young man and includes his meeting Alice Cogswell and founding the nation's first permanent school for the deaf. Readers will also get to know Sophia, his deaf wife, and Edward, youngest of his eight-children—two people who carried on his life's work.

The author, Etta Degering, has written numerous children's stories, including biographies of Louis Braille, Christopher Jones (captain of the Mayflower) and Rebecca Boone (wife of Daniel Boone). The Gallaudet biography, however, grew to have special meaning for the author during her months of research and writing. "I felt I had gotten to know Thomas, Sophia and Edward Gallaudet so well that, when I sent the manuscript to the publisher, I felt lonely, as if cherished neighbors had moved away," said Degering.

First published as a hardcover book in 1964 by David McKay Company, Gallaudet: Friend of the Deaf was released in paperback in 1979 by the Review and Herald Publishing Association. Gallaudet College Press is now the sole distributor of that paperback edition and also holds future publication rights.

"I am pleased that the book is going home to the campus where it rightfully belongs," said Degering.

The 192-page illustrated book is available at the Gallaudet College Bookstore.

Of related—and more scholarly—interest to Gallaudet faculty and staff are Edward Miner Gallaudet's memoirs regarding the founding and early years of Gallaudet College. History of the College for the Deaf, 1857-1907, by Edward Miner Gallaudet will be published this fall by Gallaudet College Press. Editors for the volume are David de Lorenzo of the Gallaudet Archives and Lance Fisher of the National Archives. The hardcover book, including nearly two dozen photographs, will be available in October.

Elderhostel programs offered for two groups

Two Elderhostel programs for hearing impaired seniors get underway this Sunday, June 12.

Both week-long programs are being offered to adults 60 years or older, and their spouses.

One program, "Hearing Loss in Later Years," is designed for hearing seniors who have begun to experience hearing loss. During their week at Gallaudet, they will explore biological, psychological and sociocultural aspects of hearing loss, discuss hearing aids and attend lectures and performances which provide a taste of deaf culture. An introduction to deaf folklore, sign language, dramatic performances and the history of Gallaudet will be included.

Another group of senior deaf adults and their spouses who are fluent in sign language will participate in "A Week in the Arts" to learn about art history and theatre.

Both groups will take field trips to the Smithsonian, White House and National Zoo, and attend special drama presentations. The program continues through June 18.

Speakers needed for deaf heritage

Plans are being made at the District of Columbia Public Library to celebrate the 10th anniversary of Deaf Heritage Week Dec. 4-10, 1983.

A highlight of the week will be a "Deaf-Talk Marathon" program, to be held at the Martin Luther King Memorial Library on Dec. 7 from noon until 9 p.m. Deaf people or representatives from organizations are invited to be on the agenda, to give a talk on any subject relating to libraries, museums and parks. At least 25 deaf people are needed to be on the agenda, and the choice for a time slot will be set up on a first come, first served basis.

Persons interested in being on the agenda or wishing more information can call 727-1186 voice or 727-2255 TDD.

A group of Friends of Libraries for Deaf Action will also have a book sale on that day to help buy TV decoders for the D.C. Public Library System.

Mary Anne Pugin, coordinator of Alumni Programs, celebrates summer by leaping down the steps of Chapel Hall.

Medina sponsors deaf benefit

Want to have a night out on the town with friends knowing that a substantial percentage of what you spend will be donated to two worthy causes?

Tim Medina is planning the 3rd Annual Deaf Benefit Party to be held at the Hawk and Dove, Duddington's and the Underground restaurants on Saturday, June 25 from 6 p.m.-3 a.m. The restaurants are located at or near 319 Pennsylvania Ave. SE, just two blocks east of the Capitol.

For the past two years Medina, along with the cooperation and support of Stu Long, president of the restaurants, has planned these parties to support worthy causes or organizations. The first party in 1980 raised close to $1,000 which was donated to the American Athletic Association of the Deaf for the Deaf Olympics. Last year's proceeds benefited Otis House.

This year, the proceeds will be divided between the Ole Jim Fund and the D.C. Police Bulletproof Vest Fund. Stu Long will donate about 50% of whatever is spent to the benefit fund.

There is no admission charge, no cover and no minimum for the party. You can stop by for a few drinks, treat a friend to dinner or just drop in and have a good time.

For the convenience of people at Gallaudet, Medina is making arrangement to have free bus transportation from Gallaudet to the restaurants and back. A bus will leave Gallaudet every hour on the half hour.

ABE workshop has display of materials

The Adult Basic Education (ABE) component of the College for Continuing Education is presenting "Working with Disadvantaged Deaf Adults," a five-day workshop designed for teachers and administrators of Adult Basic Education Programs which include deaf adults.

The workshop will be held in the Ely Center Multipurpose Room from Monday, June 13 through Friday, June 17.

A display of commercial materials appropriate for ABE for deaf adults will be held in the Ely Center Arts Room on Wednesday and Thursday, June 15 and 16, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. It will be open to the entire campus community. The materials display will include resources from several publishing companies, libraries and educational institutions.

For more information concerning the workshop, contact Nancy Pollock, Adult Basic Education specialist (PACE), x5649, or for information about materials contact Leslie Proctor, Materials Development specialist (PACE), x5597.
